PRESIDENT

STATUS: Serves as chair of the Leadership Team. Although not required, the custom of AAUW-NM is to elect two Co-Presidents every even-numbered year.

In each even-numbered year, the longer serving Co-President leaves the position after two terms and becomes the Immediate Past President. The continuing Co-President is re-elected and a new Co-President is elected at that time. Accepting the position of Co-President thus becomes a six year commitment to AAUW-NM.

QUALIFICATIONS: Prior experience on the Leadership Team and in a branch. Ability to work harmoniously with diverse people; to communicate both orally and in writing; to manage time and people effectively.

VACANCY: If one Co-President is incapacitated, the other Co-President will take full responsibility as president and the Program Vice-President position stays intact. If both co-presidents are incapacitated, the position goes to the Program Vice-President. If there are Co-Vice-Presidents and a conflict filling the vacancy, the conflict will be resolved by a vote of the Leadership Team.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES. The President shall:

- Be the chief executive officer of the organization.
- Preside at all meetings of the Leadership Team and meetings and conventions of AAUW New Mexico.
- Oversee and supervise the business and affairs of the organization and perform the duties usually incident to the office of the president of a non-profit organization, subject to State bylaws.
- Represent AAUW New Mexico in the activities of National on all levels and in working with other organizations.
- Communicate with the branch president, State Leadership Team members, and National Board and staff.
- The President shall compile and maintain a directory of Leadership Team members. This directory shall include the contact information for all members and display the term of service (e.g., 2011-2013) for each appointed and elected officer.
- Input the names and required information for incoming and continuing officers with the national Member Services Database immediately following the election and no later than July 1.
- Prepare a State calendar of AAUW-NM events for each fiscal year in cooperation with the Program Chair for approval by the Board. The calendar shall be presented at the spring Leadership Team meeting or as soon thereafter as possible.

- A modified calendar shall appear in issues of the newsletter. Dates to be included shall be:
 - workshops;
 - AAUW-NM Convention, including location;
 - other state meetings;
 - due dates for specific reports;
 - deadlines for nominations and resolutions;
 - newsletter deadlines, and/or
 - AAUW programs and other pertinent dates.
- Serve as ex-officio member of all task forces, working groups and committees except the Nominating Task Force.
- Appoint, after consultation and approval from the Leadership Team, all appointed officers and chairs of all task forces, working groups and committees except the Nominating Task Force and those otherwise provided for in the Manual of Policies and Procedures. Appoint the members of these groups in consultation with the chairs and with the approval of the Leadership Team
- Disburse funds in the absence of the Finance Chair and enforce disbursement policies.
- Facilitate the annual convention by:
 - Recruiting a branch to host the convention a least one year in advance,
 - Issuing the official call to convention 30 days in advance [this call may be published in the Roadrunner],
 - Working with the Program Vice President and the convention chair [appointed by the host branch] on all facility arrangements for the convention and approving all arrangements,
 - Appointing a head teller, and
 - Consulting with the parliamentarian regarding the conduct of business sessions and any anticipated parliamentary problems.
- Visit a petitioning group desiring to form a branch and recommend action to the Leadership Team. If Leadership Team approval is given, the President shall notify National and request the State Membership Vice President to continue organizing activities.
- Notify a branch which appears to have forfeited the right to continue as a branch, and request it to present its view in writing to the Leadership Team within a designated and reasonable period of time. Upon action by the Leadership Team, the President shall notify National of the discontinuance of the branch.
- Administer and account for the President's travel and officer/program budget items. Submit a budget request for the coming year to the Finance Chair by April 1.
- Plan with President-elect for a smooth transition of responsibilities. Prepare materials and pass on permanent files before July 1 or the conclusion of office.

PROGRAM VICE PRESIDENT

STATUS: Serves as member of the Leadership Team. Elected in odd-numbered years. This position is often filled with two people (co-officers) who are elected at the same time.

QUALIFICATIONS: Prior experience with AAUW program activities and issues.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES. The Program Vice President shall:

- Assume the duties of the President in the President's absence or inability to serve. Preside at meetings of the Leadership Team in the absence of the President.
- Contact branch counterparts in spring and summer to encourage including National and State program priorities in branch programs. Act as a resource for branch program development.
- Coordinate publication of the agenda for the workshop and convention.
- Request a National representative for the State Convention and/or the workshop.
- Request and schedule speakers and panel members for the workshop and convention. Assist the President and local arrangements chair with the workshop and convention arrangements.
- Prepare articles for The Roadrunner announcing the workshop and convention [fall and spring editions] and summarized the meetings after they are held [summer and winter editions].
- Request branches to prepare program reports for the convention booklet.
- Prepare a program report for the convention booklet.
- Evaluate the convention, including attendee's evaluation at the next meeting of the Leadership Team.
- Maintain a convention notebook including the programs, budgets evaluations, and suggestions from the past five conventions. Pass this notebook on to the chair of the local arrangements committee by July 1 preceding the convention or as soon as the local committee begins preparations.
- Administer and account for the program budget item. Submit budget request for the coming year to the Finance Chair by April 1.
- Plan with successor for a smooth transition of responsibilities. Prepare materials and pass on permanent files, including the convention notebook, before July 1 or the conclusion of office.

MEMBERSHIP VICE PRESIDENT

STATUS: Serves as member of the Leadership Team. Elected in even-numbered years. This position is often filled with two people (co-officers) who are elected at the same time.

QUALIFICATIONS:

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES. The Membership Vice President shall:

- Preside at meetings of the Leadership Team in the absence of the President and Program Vice-President.
- Compare branch membership figures for the two preceding years for any significant differences; analyze the data and report findings to the President and Leadership Team.
- Prepare and distribute a membership report for the State Convention. Distribute reports to Membership Vice Presidents of branches not represented at convention.
- Administer and account for membership budget item. Submit a budget request for the coming year to the Finance Chair by April 1.
- Plan with successor for a smooth transition of responsibilities. Prepare materials and pass on permanent files before July 1 or the conclusion of office.
- Certify the voting body for the State Convention as follows:
 1. Consult with the Finance Chair on total membership for each branch after receipt of the formal membership report from national.
 2. Send a copy of total membership voting strength as of February 1 for each branch to the Branch Presidents, State President(s), and the Chair of the State Convention.
- Provide a program for statewide membership development in the areas of recruitment, orientation, and retention.
- Encourage membership growth by providing branches with information about successful membership activities:
 - Submit membership articles to The Roadrunner, and
 - Communicate directly with branches.
- Assist the President in forming new branches by:
 - Attending organization meetings,
 - Recruiting board members to participate,
 - Directing the organizing group to refrain from publicizing itself as an AAUW Branch before receiving formal recognition from National,
 - Attending the meeting of the new branch at which permanent officers are elected and approved bylaws adopted,
 - Arranging for a Leadership Team member to be present, if possible, at the next two general meetings of the new branch; and
 - Informing the State President on committee activities with the organizing group.

FINANCE CHAIR

STATUS: Serves as a member of the Leadership Team. Elected in odd-numbered years.

QUALIFICATIONS: Prior experience as treasurer or finance chair in a branch or similar non-profit organization or other accounting experience.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES. The Finance Chair shall:

- Collect New Mexico State dues and other money owed the state.
- Make timely disbursements in accordance with the approved budget, or as directed by the Leadership Team.
- Serve as custodian of all funds and securities except AAUW Funds.
- Present a detailed financial statement to the Leadership Team at each meeting, to the State Convention and to the President when requested.
- Present the budget for action by the delegate body at the AAUW-NM Convention.
- Instruct board members as to reimbursement policies and procedures.
- Obtain a bond and renew it as needed.
- Maintain the following bookkeeping procedures:
 1. Keep an accurate set of books.
 2. After taking office open a new checking account, if needed, with the current President as the alternate signatory, or update signature cards of current account.
 3. Record budget assignments and amounts for each deposit and disbursement. Keep bank statements and deposit slips.
 4. Verify bills prior to payment and itemize each receipt with the budget assignment.
 5. Keep the financial records for the duration required by the IRS.
- Maintain the following timetable of duties:
 1. Summer: after July 15, receive the reviewed/audited books from predecessor, along with files and pertinent materials.
 2. Fall: Before November 1 prepare and file appropriate tax forms with national AAUW and/or the Internal Revenue Service [IRS form 990] as per national procedures. Remind all branch treasurers annually of this responsibility in time for them to comply with the IRS regulations.
 3. Spring: Convene Finance and Budget Working Group and prepare budget. Present the budget to the Leadership Team for recommendation and to the State convention for approval.
 4. Summer: Close books on July 15 for fiscal year ending June 30. Prepare the annual report for the year, July 1- June 30 and distribute to board members and branch presidents or include in the next president's distribution. Submit records for review/audit at the close of term of office.
- In conjunction with the Vice President Membership, distribute information and procedures for payment of State dues to all branches in May or June. Emphasize that dues are payable by each branch on or before July 1 and are in arrears unless postmarked by August 10. The outgoing or continuing Finance Chair does this distribution.

- At the close of the term of office, work with the President to have a review task force appointed. The books shall be reviewed before the new finance chair takes office.
- Plan with successor for a smooth transition of responsibilities, turning over records at the expiration of term, but no later than August 10.

The Budget Working Group is comprised of the Finance Chair and two other members appointed by the Leadership Team. It shall:

- Prepare a budget for the coming year using realistic projections of membership and other income. This budget is presented to the Leadership Team, which then recommends it with or without changes to the State Convention for final approval.
- Recommend an investment policy to the leadership Team for approval.
- Prepare a budget for the coming year. Such budget is to be presented during the AAUW-NM Convention. The budget Working Group shall consist of the elected finance officer and two additional members appointed by the President and approved by the Leadership Team during the winter meeting. The Working Group shall draw up a budget based on actual and estimated expenditures, establish a travel allowance and submit them to the Leadership Team for discussion and changes.

The Financial Review Task Force:

- Shall consist of three members appointed by the Leadership Team, including one member from the general membership. No elected officer may serve; however, the Finance Chair will provide records and assist as necessary.
- All members shall have financial or budgetary experience, and at least one member shall have financial expertise.
- The initial meeting shall be held following the close of the fiscal year.

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES. The College/University Chair shall:

- Encourage all branches to appoint a C/U chair who will:
 - Advise them on recruiting strategies to help them find the right fit for the position.
 - Provide ongoing support to the branch C/U chairs with communication, resource sharing, and strategy development. Report successful C/U activities to all branches and the AAUW manager of C/U relationships.
 - Coordinate with branch C/U chairs to establish a relationship with C/U representatives in New Mexico so that they know you are available to them. Describe AAUW initiatives and relevant research to representatives.
 - Follow up with branch C/U chairs in support of recruitment initiatives (such as personal letters to campus presidents and C/U representatives in your state).
 - Collaborate with branch C/U chairs to encourage their participation in C/U-related work at the State Conventions.
 - Encourage branches in towns with colleges or universities to appoint a College/University Chair who will be a member of a state C/U task force that plans and implements C/U activities in New Mexico.
 - Recruit a team of people who are familiar with higher education and are effective marketers.
 - Work with branch C/U chairs to collect end-of-semester updates and communicate them to AAUW's manager of C/U relationships in the national office.
- Develop an annual action plan that includes specific, measurable goals.
- Develop and oversee the C/U budget in New Mexico.
- Ensure that partner-member recruitment and retention priorities are included in new Mexico's strategic plan and state budget.
- Work with other state C/U chairs and the national C/U committee to integrate colleges and universities into other aspects of your state's activities, including programs, public policy, membership, fellowships and grants, AAUW Legal Advocacy Fund efforts, and your state's convention.
- Contact institutional members and obtain a representative who is willing to receive communications; then, ensure they have received pertinent information sent by AAUW.
- Develop and implement programs that are geared toward college and university faculty, administrators, staff, and students (for example, AAUW Legal Advocacy Fund Campus Outreach Programs).
- Develop commitments from local colleges and universities and the branches to support students' attendance at the National Conference for College Women Student Leaders.

- Involve C/U representatives in the State Conventions, conferences, and special events or invite them to be speakers in their areas of expertise at these events.
- Assist the membership vice president (MVP) in promoting individual AAUW memberships to graduating seniors, graduate students, faculty, administrators, staff, and other potential AAUW members on campus.
- Promote the e-student affiliate program to undergraduate students at current C/U partner-member institutions. Request that C/U representatives ask their students to enroll themselves in AAUW's e-student affiliate program using AAUW's online form.
